

XM radio is all I listen to now. We need the additional services that they can provide over the airways like traffic and weather. Do not let the NBA lobbyists tell you what to do. It is a US right for XM and others to provide us new services.

Randy Overton